5 With current technology, camcorders, cameras and smart phones are able to achieve the best exposure by adjusting automatically. Thank goodness this issue is finally solved!

Marks: 2

Answer:

- True ✗
- False ✓

We're still not quite there yet. Cameras and camcorders still need good operators and those shooting with a smart phone need to be sensitive to the light needs of their devices so as to add or remove light in their frame to get the best exposure.

Correct

Marks for this submission: 2/2.
