3 North East Wales

Less than 20 minutes from Chester, we're just a short journey from the North West and the West Midlands. From the bustling shops and cultural events of Wrexham to the culinary delights of the Mold Food and Drink Festival to the world-famous Llangollen International Eisteddfod. The area includes Rhyl, one of the best recognised British seaside resorts and the Clywdian Range & Dee Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. We even have an 11-mile long World Heritage Site – the Pontcysyllte Aqueduct and Canal and you can also walk the ancient Offa's Dyke path running through Chirk out to the coast at Prestatyn.
